PHONE CALL RECORDER

✔ Records calls performed on analogue lines
✔ Identifies caller number (CLIP)

Phone call recorder is a device designed to record the contents of the phone calls performed on analogue phone line. The recorded content is saved to a PC connected to the recorder through a USB port.

Device features

- o   call recording on 1/2/3/4 analogue phone line (PSTN/POTS), possible extension with more devices.
- o   identification of the caller number (CLIP)
- o   connection to a PC through a USB port only
- o   connection to the phone line parallel to the phone
- o   no interference with the existing telephone network
- o   no need of any power supply
- o   CE marking

Software features

- o   automatic phone call recording
- o   identification of incoming, outgoing and unanswered calls
- o   call content stored in separate compressed files – approximately 8 MB consumption per one hour talk
- o   phone tapping of the recorded calls
- o   notes assigned to the recorded calls
- o   independent playback of the calls recorded
- o   call graphical representation
- o   automatic control of available space – automatic removal of the oldest recordings
- o   generation of archive copies, archive copies storage on CDs/DVDs, browsing through the archive copies
- o   calls archive remote access through a web browser
- o   remote call listening
- o   phone book embedded
- o   caller number, caller ID, localization, country and carrier data provided
- o   searching, filtering and printing of the list of calls, export of the list of calls to CSV format
- o   connection statistics and summaries
- o   access to selected software functions protected with a password from unauthorized use cooperation
- o   with other systems by providing API for developers
- o   cooperation with all models of FonTel recorders

UAB "Panalita" technikos centras
Įmonės kodas 123712698, PVM kodas LT 237126917

Panasonic verslo partneris

T. Ševčenkos g. 16A, LT03111 Vilnius
T./ f.: +370 5 239 50 80   GSM: +370 682 43506

El. paštas: info@panalita.lt, www.panalita.lt